Police say Jacob Chapman of Huntsville was arrested Friday after police found the victims and the suspect inside a home on Gateway Drive. Police say Chapman was charged with two counts of sexual abuse of a minor, one count of sexual abuse of a minor with force, and one count of sexual abuse of a minor with object. Chapman is being held in the Madison County Jail on a $50,000 bond.When Gov. Cuomo announced a plan to spend $8.3 billion on the MTA in the upcoming budget, the Broadway Chamber of Commerce strongly opposed the plan. “The Broadway business community remains adamantly opposed to any additional financial commitments to the MTA,” chamber President and CEO Timothy O'Brien said in a statement. “Like other key industries in the area, the Broadway Chamber is gravely concerned that an unfunded MTA capital program will endanger the jobs and vitality of the Broadway business community.” O'Brien said the city’s reliance on property taxes is already at risk from rising commercial property values, and now is the time to look to state and federal funding sources. “We continue to urge Gov. Cuomo and the state legislature to increase state funding for the MTA in this year’s budget,” he said. “It is only a matter of time before the Broadway business community loses the many thousands of jobs, much-needed tax base and economic vitality that come from
