Category: Call of Duty My heart swelled in many directions at the same time when I first heard of Sato's investigation. I made a point of meeting him because I wanted to read this book without having to buy a book that would bind me to future orders, and to help him where I could. You see, I'm able to read Japanese but I have a small problem with pronunciation: I can read words, but I can't speak. For this reason, the translation into English and the subsequent editing of this essay was done entirely by myself. I was very sorry that because the circumstances of the paper's disappearance, I was unable to add new information after interviewing Sato. I deeply apologize for all the trouble I caused. The best way to accept my guilt is to complete the investigation. Sato was a man who truly enjoyed investigation work; once he became involved in the investigation, he immersed
