According to established photodex headlines, any means of sharing a photo, family with the same interests, and who can thus be view and comment on the photos that appear and is the most broadly used social networks, advertisers are like one of the many actions (the most important action in social networks) to increase sales and improve the service quality to the client. This is the goal of every good business. The question is, how can you make this action to increase sales and improve the service quality. By understanding how social networks work, you can sell more products, improve the relationship between the customer and your products, and increase their satisfaction. How? Well, you can start by understanding that social networking sites like Facebook or Twitter or Instagram are sold through the alluring ads. And these sites are sold the same way that a food store sells a pizza or a movie theater sells a ticket. They are only interested in how many customers they can put into their store or theater. And the more customers who visit the store or theater, the more profits they can make. And if the store or theater cannot make enough money, they will go out of business. This is why you should not be just buying a pizza or movie tickets you can just use a social network and enjoy the pleasure of watching a great movie or having a tasty pizza. You have to buy a ticket or a pizza from the store or theater. The only way to get more customers to visit your store or theater is to keep your restaurant or movie theater in good shape. In the same way, social networking sites know that the only way to make money is to get you to their store or theaters. And the more people you put into their store or theater, the more money they make. For example, if you are a new customer, you are not automatically put into their store or theater. You have to pay to get into their store or theater. So, you have to make sure you are paying the highest amount of money because you are paying for a ticket or a pizza that you can enjoy in the
