With a soul that was pure and not sinful, He didn't look for one, he didn't ask for one. He was handsome as an angel in a fairy tale, And so dreamed that the world would know, That there is no soul more beautiful or purer, And that the world wouldn't know it. He did not seek a soul that was not sinful, And did not want to get into it, And let not an angel help him, He just lived and loved to dream. But he did not see that from the world It's all hidden like a seal. He kept dreaming of the sea, And he kept just waiting. And then one day he woke up, As if an angel had awakened him.
